

TITLE: Global Architects: Conversations About Ethics Around the World (International Tea and Ethics)

SESSION DATE: October 7, 2021

SESSION TIME: 3:30 PM – 4:45 PM

SESSION DESCRIPTION:

This roundtable of international and U.S. based judges and attendees will convene over refreshments for a discussion of hot topics in judicial ethics confronting judges all over the globe. Our facilitators will introduce hypothetical questions for small group discussions throughout this interactive program. After the small table discussions, we will reconvene the entire group to share topics and thoughts.

FACILITATORS:

Hon. Judy Chirlin – Retired Superior Court Judge, Los Angeles California

Judge Judith C. Chirlin, was appointed to the Los Angeles Superior Court in 1985. She is a graduate of The George Washington University (BA in Political Science), Rutgers University (MA in Politics from the Eagleton Institute of Politics) and the USC Law School (JD).

Over the years, Judge Chirlin has been involved in numerous efforts to improve the legal system and the administration of justice in California, throughout the nation and around the world. In 1984 she designed and from that time, has participated in seminars called “So You Want to be a Judge” for women’s, minority and other bar associations throughout the state. Those seminars have been widely recognized as having demystified the process of judicial appointments in California and having resulted in significantly increased diversity in judicial appointments throughout the state. Judge Chirlin has served on numerous state and national committees and boards. She is a past Chair of the American Judicature Society, a national organization dedicated to improving the justice system. She has held numerous positions in the Women Lawyers Association of Los Angeles, California Women Lawyers, National Association of Women Judges and the International Association of Women Judges. She served as Vice Chair of the California Gender Bias Task Force and as a member of a Blue Ribbon Panel investigating the Problems of Women in Prison, both by virtue of appointment by the Chief Justice of California. She has been a member of the Board of the American Bar Association’s Rule of Law Initiative (“ROLI”).

Judge Chirlin has traveled extensively, consulting on court reform and teaching programs for foreign judges, lawyers, police officers and other legal professionals. Among the countries she has traveled to in that capacity are Peru, Chile, El Salvador, Honduras, Russia, Slovakia, Latvia, Bulgaria, Czech Republic, Serbia, Iraq, Jordan, Morocco, Turkey, Georgia, Oman, Ecuador, Moldova, Qatar, Libya and Tunisia. In 2003 she was the ABA’s representative on a delegation of the International Legal Assistance Consortium (“ILAC”) that traveled to Baghdad in August of 2003 to assess the Iraqi legal system and make recommendations regarding what ILAC’s member organizations could do help the Iraqi justice system. As a partial result of the ILAC report, Judge Chirlin has taught three programs entitled “Judging in a Democratic Society” to judges from Iraq. Both the former Interim Justice Minister (and later Chief Justice) of Iraq and the first judge in the trial of Saddam Hussein were participants in the Iraqi courses. One segment of that course focuses on judges’ responsibility to educate the population on the importance of Judicial Independence to a system governed by the rule of law and effective ways of dealing with the media to accomplish that goal.

Judge Chirlin retired from the Los Angeles Superior Court, effective September 30, 2009. She currently works in private dispute resolution; she has started a non-profit foundation to support justice system improvement projects that enhance the rule of law. She also continues her work in the international arena.
