

NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF WOMEN JUDGES

Setting the Pace for Justice

October 5 - 7, 2023

Indianapolis, IN

Are you ready to Set the Pace for Justice?

We are happy to report that Indianapolis has been chosen as the host city for the National Association of Women Judges (NAWJ) conference October 4-7, 2023. We expect over 300 judges from across the country, including international judges and members of the bar.

We are honored to serve as leaders of the “Friends Committee” for this conference. Because judges cannot ask for financial support or assistance with respect to their attendance at this conference, we need your involvement to help offset the costs of this important gathering.

Please join us in making the NAWJ conference a success by reviewing the attached materials and considering a sponsorship gift. We look forward to talking to you about how you can “Set the Pace for Justice” by becoming a partner with us in the NAWJ’s 45th Annual Conference. Please contact us in the meantime if you have any questions or would like proactively commit to sponsoring. Thank you.

National Association of Women Judges Who We Are

Mission: To promote the judicial role in protecting the rights of individuals under the rule of law through strong, committed, and diverse judicial leadership; fairness and equality in the courts; and equal access to justice.

Membership: NAWJ is committed to diversity in its membership. Membership includes trial, appellate, administrative, tribal, and military judges who serve on federal, state local, and tribal courts from throughout the country, as well judges who are part of international tribunals. In addition, attorneys, law clerks, law students, and law professors are committed to our mission. Also, NAWJ founded its sister organization, the International Association of Women Judges, to support and interact with judges from all over the world.

Signature Programs

Informed Voters, Fair Judges Project

A national voter education civics program founded and taught by judges about the critical importance of an independent and impartial judiciary.

Color of Justice

NAWJ signature program where judges and lawyers partner to encourage high school students, especially those from underrepresented populations, to pursue careers in the law and the judiciary.

Mentorjet

An opportunity for judges and legal professionals to meet high school and college students interested in the law.

Bar to Bench

A program to encourage women lawyers to consider judicial careers, as well as make the process of appointment and election to the bench more transparent and accessible.

NAWJ is also at the forefront of combatting human trafficking, interrupting the school to prison pipeline, domestic violence, and supporting programs assisting women in prison.
