

Tea and Ethics

This roundtable of international and U.S. based judges and attendees will convene over refreshments for a discussion of hot topics in judicial ethics confronting judges all over the globe. Our facilitators will introduce hypothetical questions for small group discussions throughout this interactive program. International judges are also welcome to bring ethical dilemmas they face to discuss with the attendees. After the small table discussions, we will reconvene the entire group to share topics and thoughts.

Facilitator:

Hon. Lisa Walsh, Circuit Court Judge, Eleventh Judicial Circuit Court, Miami-Dade, Florida

Judge Lisa Walsh is a Circuit Court judge of the Eleventh Judicial Circuit in Miami-Dade, Florida, in the Complex Business Litigation and the International Commercial Arbitration divisions. Before becoming a judge, Judge Walsh was a trial and appellate lawyer for sixteen years.

Judge Walsh was the 2015-2016 President of NAWJ. Judge Walsh is a Director for the North American region of the International Association of Women Judges (IAWJ). She also serves as the International Director for NAWJ. She leads a national mentoring program for Afghan women judges who are in the US. She is liaison to the International Section of the ABA. Judge Walsh was the President of Miami-Dade Florida Association for Women Lawyers.

Judge Walsh has been honored with many awards, including the 2020 NAWJ Norma Wikler Award, the 2018 NAWJ Justice Vaino Spencer Leadership Award, the “Outstanding Woman in Government & Law” by the Miami-Dade Commission for Women, and the 2015 Mattie Belle Davis Award from Miami-Dade FAWL.

Judge Walsh obtained her undergraduate degree from Northwestern University and her law degree from the University of Miami School of Law. She is married to attorney David Rosendorf and is the proud mother of two adult children.
