

A project of the National Association of Women Judges

About IVP

The NAWJ Informed Voters, Fair Judges Project is a non-partisan public education initiative developed to educate the public about the constitutional role of the judicial branch and to protect our courts from outside influences.

Get Involved

Get involved in the Informed Voters, Fair Judges project by:

- Sponsoring an event
- Presenting to the public using IVP resources
- Conducting a panel discussion at a college or university
- Host an exhibit or session locally
- Request jury assembly resources

Leadership

Honorable Barbara J. Pariente
Florida Supreme Court Justice
Co-chair, NAWJ Judicial Independence Committee

Honorable Robin Hudson
North Carolina Supreme Court Justice
Co-chair, NAWJ Judicial Independence Committee

Honorable Tani Cantil-Sakauye
California Supreme Court Chief Justice
National Co-Chair, IVP

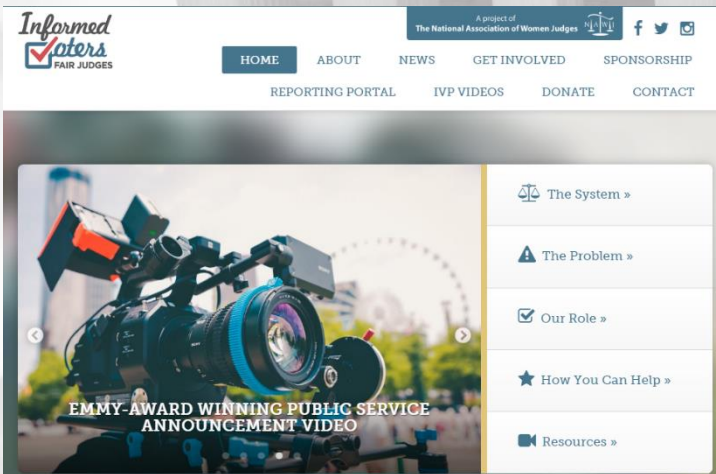

Linda Leali, Esq.
Shareholder, Linda Leali P.A.
National Co-chair, IVP

Associate Justice Joan Irion
California 4th DCA
IVP Founder

Annette Boyd Pitts
Executive Director,
The Florida Law Related Education Association
National Education Chair,
Informed Voters, Fair Judges Project

Visit us online at www.ivp.nawj.org

- Emmy Award-winning video featuring Retired United States Supreme Court Justice Sandra Day O'Connor
- Educational presentations, handouts, and other resources
- Webinars and training opportunities
- New Jury room videos and resources

Contact us at ivp.nawj@gmail.com

Find us on social media!

www.facebook.com/informedvotersproject/

@ivpfairfree

@informedvotersproject