

Mimi Tsankov
Biographical Statement

Mimi Tsankov is an Immigration Judge at the New York Federal Plaza Immigration Court. In the past 15 years presiding at Immigration Courts in New York, Colorado, and California, she has held a variety of national leadership roles including Pro Bono Liaison Judge, contributing editor to the Immigration Judge Benchbook, Attorney Discipline Adjudicator, Chair, Immigration Court - Board of Immigration Appeals Precedent Committee, Mentor Judge, and Juvenile Docket Best Practices Committee Chair. She is currently President of the National Association of Immigration Judges (NAIJ), and serves as NAWJ VP of Publications in her capacity as President of the NAIJ.*

In her personal capacity, she has been elected to the Federal Bar Association (FBA) Board of Directors, and serves as Immediate Past President of the FBA Southern District of New York (SDNY) Chapter. She is a prior Chair of the FBA national International Law Section. Presently she serves on the Board of the Judicial Division and the Diversity and Inclusion Committee. In Fall 2020, she co-chaired a national law student three-part webinar program entitled, Racial Equality and the SDGs: A Certificate Training Program for Law Students. This program was accessible to all law students, nationwide. In Spring 2021, she launched an International Courts Topical Webinar Series at the FBA.

At the American Bar Association (ABA), Judge Tsankov holds a range of leadership positions within the Judicial Division, National Conference of Administrative Law Judges (NCALJ), the Judicial Division Board, including serving as Liaison to the ABA Commission on Immigration.

Judge Tsankov is co-chair of the National Association of Women Judges (NAWJ) Immigration Law Committee, and Vice President of Publications. She serves as an adjunct faculty member at the Fordham Law School in New York. Judge Tsankov publishes regularly in peer-reviewed, and general interest journals. She speaks regularly before members of the immigration law community at international, national, and regional conferences.

DISCLAIMER: The author is the President of the National Association of Immigration Judges. The views expressed here do not necessarily represent the official position of the United States Department of Justice, the Attorney General, or the Executive Office for Immigration Review. The views represent the author's personal opinions, which were formed after extensive consultation with the membership of NAIJ.