

The Honorable Lisa Paglisotti
Judge, King County District Court

Judge Lisa Paglisotti was appointed to King County District Court's West Division in 2016. She currently presides over King County District Court's Regional Mental Health Court and Regional Veteran's Court. She previously presided over King County District Court's first Community Court. Judge Paglisotti came to the bench with more than 30 years of experience in the justice system, having served the community as a public defender for more than 22 years, and served the community's youth as a juvenile probation counselor and as a juvenile corrections officer. Judge Paglisotti serves on the Court's Equity and Social Justice Committee, Probation Committee, and Budget Committee. She serves on the District and Municipal Court Judge's Association's Diversity and Therapeutic Court's Committees.

A graduate of the University of Washington with B.A. degrees in Sociology and Society and Justice, Judge Paglisotti earned her J.D. from Seattle University School of Law