

The Honorable Lynda Jones Judge, Davidson County Court

Judge Lynda Jones was elected to the bench on August 7, 2014. She was the Presiding Judge of Davidson County General Sessions Court from September 1, 2019 – September 1, 2020. She practiced law in middle Tennessee for 22 years prior to becoming a judge. She is a Chair of the General Sessions Court Committee for Nashville Bar Association and Fellow of the Nashville Bar Foundation. She was nominated and selected by her peers to serve on the Executive Committee for the Tennessee General Sessions Judges Conference as President Elect.

Judge Jones has been heavily involved in the Nashville Community after serving on the boards of several organizations while also active in her church. She has also won several awards such as the 2015 Nashville Business Journal, Public Policy Award, 2014 Athena Nominee, 2014 NAWBO Woman of the Year Award, 2013 Athena Nominee, and the 2013 Mid-South Super Lawyer. Lynda is widowed and has one child. She served as a Girl Scout troop volunteer and mentor to women in the community.