

Judge Andrea D. Plumlee
330th District Judge

The Honorable Andrea D. Plumlee is a 1993 graduate of Southern Methodist University School of Law. She received her undergraduate degree from North Texas State University where she majored in Real Estate Finance. She was elected as the District Judge of the 330th Judicial District in November 2010 and is currently serving her fourth term.

Prior to her tenure on the bench, Judge Plumlee was the senior attorney with PLUMLEE & ASSOCIATES, a firm whose primary focus was family law and child welfare litigation. She was previously a partner in the firm of WATTLEY & PLUMLEE, a civil litigation firm handling Title VII litigation, juvenile defense, and child welfare litigation.

Judge Plumlee currently serves as the Local Administrative District Judge in Dallas County where she provides administrative oversight for 29 district courts under her jurisdiction. She is the immediate past Presiding Judge of the seven family District Courts in Dallas County. She currently serves as the vice chair of the Juvenile board and was a member from 2011- 2021. She has also served as the Vice Chair for the District 6A Grievance Committee prior to being elected. She is a frequent guest speaker at Child Welfare conferences. Additionally, she has appeared as a guest lecturer for the W.W. Caruth, Jr. Child Advocacy Clinic and has also served as Mentor Attorney for the Child Advocacy Clinic, both through Southern Methodist University.

Judge Plumlee's affiliation with various legal organizations as well as past and present service in professional associations include the College of the State Bar; Texas Trial Lawyers Association; J.L. Turner Legal Association; Dallas Bar Association; Family Law Section (Former Board member); Annette Stewart Inns of Court; Southwestern Legal Foundation; and the Patrick Higginbotham Inns of Court.