

Angelica Maria Mercado

Angelica Mercado is a fourth-year student at Seton Hall University School of Law, completing both her law and Masters degree in Diplomacy and International Relations. At Seton Hall, Angelica has served as Co-President of the Latin American Law Student Association, student liaison to both the Hispanic Bar Association of New Jersey and the Hispanic National Bar Association, Seton Hall Center for Social Justice Scholar, and Chair of the Seton Hall Law Honor Council.

Throughout law school, Angelica has worked with multiple immigration nonprofits and initiatives, has participated in Seton Hall's competitive immigrants' rights and constitutional law clinics, and has clerked at the law firm of McGivney, Kluger, Clark & Intoccia in Florham Park, NJ. Upon graduation, Angelica will clerk for the New Jersey Superior Court, Family Part in Somerset County, New Jersey, and after completing her clerkship, she will return to MKCI as an Associate Attorney.

Prior to law school, Angelica received her Bachelor's degree in International Affairs from the George Washington University's Elliott School of International Affairs in Washington, D.C.