

Report from District 13
Honorable Lisa Paglisotti

ALASKA, WASHINGTON, OREGON, IDAHO, MONTANA, HAWAII, GUAM, NORTHERN MARIANA ISLANDS

---District 13 has welcomed new members from Washington and Oregon.

----The District 13 Book Club met in November, March, and August. In November, members gathered via Zoom for a discussion and celebration of the Honorable Ruth Bader Ginsburg. In March, we gathered again via Zoom and discussed the book "Caste". The August book selection was "The Sum of Us".

----District 13 member Rafe Majul was appointed to the Washington State Interpreter Commission.

----District 13 member Judge Manglona welcomed members of the Northern Mariana Islands to a tour of the new state of the art federal courthouse.

----District 13 member Linda Coburn was elected to the Washington State Court of Appeals.

----District 13 new member Jessica Giner is a former NAWJ scholarship winner, and was very excited to join NAWJ after her appointment to the Renton Municipal Court bench.

----District 13 member Judge Helen Whitener was named Public Official of the Year by Evergreen State College Master of Public Administration Program.

-----District 13 member Jennifer Henderson was appointed to the Alaska Supreme Court this month.

-----I was hopeful that we would finally have some NAWJ members from Hawaii. I was able to connect with three Judges. At least one of the Judges was prepared to join NAWJ until the issue arose surrounding the resolution. I am planning to reach back out to her after the matter is resolved.

----President Donohue, Marilyn Paja, and I met with Washington AOC to discuss a virtual Color of Justice program. After discussing the issue, we decided to delay it during the pandemic.
