

10/12/2025
Annual Report
Report of District 13
Honorable Bride Seifert

---

We share our heartfelt gratitude for the NAWJ members, community members, teachers, parents, attorneys, and administrators who bring these programs to life.

Alaska:

October 2024 – Success Inside and Out

Judges Jo-Ann Chung, Pam Washington, Kari McCrae, Yvonne Lamoureux, Laura Hartz, Kari Kristiansen, Katherine Chung, and Justice Jennifer Henderson worked with over 50 women who will soon be released from prison. This full day programs provides practical support and thoughtful dialog between judges, inmates, and service providers.

Judge Jo-Ann Chung, Dasha Kelly Hamilton, and NAWJ President-elect Pam Washington

Judges and Success Inside and Out participants planning for a successful release and re-entry

Success Inside and Out programming

November 2024 – Color of Justice

Anchorage judges and justices partnered with the Alaska Native Justice Center to present “Fostering Diversity in the Legal Profession & Judiciary...One Student at a Time”. This annual program brings high school students into the courthouse to learn about the rule of law and its importance, participate in a mock trial, and encourage careers in the legal field.

April 2025 – International Judges Assoc. Meeting, South Africa

Judges from around the country and around the globe met in South Africa for an amazing conference.

US Judges

President-elect Pam Washington with District 13 Director Bride Seifert

May 2025 – Law Day celebration

NAWJ and the Kenai Peninsula Youth Court welcomed students to the Homer, AK courthouse for a mock trial based on the Boston Massacre. High school students did an amazing job performing the roles of the prosecution, defense, and witnesses.

June 2025 – Celebrating Alaska's Women Judges, AAWL/NAWJ

Alaska NAWJ members gathered at NAWJ past-president Senior Justice Dana Fabe's home on June 26, 2025, for a Celebration of the Women of Alaska's Judiciary. For the first time, women make up a majority of both the Alaska Supreme Court and Court of Appeals. Justice Fabe recognized Pam Washington as NAWJ's president-elect, and encouraged all in attendance to become involved in NAWJ. Food, fun, and fond memories were shared by all those in attendance.

Alaska's Women Judges

The Alaska Supreme Court's past and present women justices: Amy Oravec, Jennifer Henderson, Dana Fabe, Morgan Christen, Susan Carney

A great crowd, including many NAWJ and Anchorage Assoc. of Women Lawyers members

Upcoming:

November 2025 - Color of Justice, Sitka

April 2026 – Success Inside and Out

May 2026 – NAWJ Mid-year meeting and Alaskan Cruise

Washington:

Washington Judges held a successful Color of Justice program, with plans to expand the program to multiple locations.