

12/17/2025
Report of District 13
Honorable Bride Seifert

---

We share our heartfelt gratitude for the NAWJ members, community members, teachers, parents, attorneys, and administrators who bring these programs to life.

November 2025 - Color of Justice, Sitka, AK:

NAWJ, the Alaska Native Justice Center, the Alaska Court System and a number of other supporters co-sponsored the event. Many judges and volunteers hosted 89 students. Prior to the event 42% of the students were interested in a career in law. Afterwards, 74% were interested in a career in law.

Washington:

November 2025 – Washington State NAWJ members helped sponsor a Meet the Judges event on November 20th. Prior to the pandemic, NAWJ and the Washington State Gender and Justice Commission partnered each fall with Washington State Law Schools for a networking event between judges and approximately 45 law students. The event on November 20th is the first held since 2019.

Dec 2025 - King County Superior Court also hosted a Color of Justice event on December 5th. Co-chairs of the event were NAWJ members Judge Monica Cary and Judge Hillary Madsen.

130 students and chaperones from four middle schools in Kent, WA participated in sessions on mock jury selection and appellate arguments on whether TikTok should be banned.

A pizza lunch was served, and a discussion of career paths featuring KCSC staff and volunteer attorneys from the community.

Washington's Color of Justice

Upcoming:

April 2026 – Success Inside and Out

May 2026 – NAWJ Mid-year meeting and Alaskan Cruise