

First Annual Success Inside & Out Resource Fair

Organized by the National Association of Women Judges

Urban Scholars // Maria Morales & Ryan Rising

- Has student advocates with lived experience committed to supporting all cultures transitioning from incarceration to education
- Where formerly incarcerated students come together to support one another on and off campus to promote change

START YOUR CAREER!

Metro Career Center // Maria Beltran & Laura Bowden

- Provides a full range of comprehensive workforce development programs
- Offers professional job-readiness workshops to improve your job search strategy

Kitchens for Good // Katrina Meredith

- Holds a tuition-free, 12-week certified culinary apprenticeship program for populations considered difficult to employ
- Provides you with technical skills, workforce readiness instruction, case management, and industry certification

Second Chance // Robert Coleman

- Provides drug and alcohol free housing
- Offers Job Readiness Training followed by 2 years support in obtaining and keeping employment
- Has a Re-entry Court Program
- Has a Job Center in Las Colinas

FIND LEGAL ASSISTANCE!

Fresh Start // DPD Kate Braner

- Offers comprehensive criminal record relief
- Assists with reducing convictions
- Guidance in getting Certificates of Rehabilitation

Free to Thrive // Kathi Hardy & Jamie Quient

- Serves victims of human trafficking in their recovery and transition from survivors to thrivers
- Provides legal services including: child custody/ family law, expunging/vacating criminal records, victim's advocacy/court representation

Legal Aid // Joe Villasenor

- Provides low-income clients with free civil legal assistance, including legal advice and counsel, effective referrals, and legal representation.
- Offers free help with Calworks/Calfresh, child custody/visitation, and SSI.

Health & Human Services Agency

Tracey Hazel

- Provides food assistance, childcare, cash aid, Cal Fresh & special programs for refugees & human trafficking victims to help get needed services

Project LIFE, North County Lifeline

Living in Freedom from Exploitation(HHSA)

Kathleen Thomas & Stephanie Gonzalez

- Provides emergency services & intensive case management, therapy, emergency housing, food & clothing & the development of a safety plan.

Clean Slate // Keiara Auzenne

- Asists with expungements, early termination of probation, and felony reductions to misdemeanor.

Disability Rights Center // Rebecca Cervenak

- Provides technical assistance, training, publications and advocacy support
- Provides peer-self advocacy services for people with psychiatric or developmental disabilities

Child Support Services // Brianna Fornerod

- Establishes paternity, obtains & enforces support orders, & may assist with order modification and the Compromise of Arrears Program
- Enhances the lives & well-being of children & promotes family self-sufficiency by establishing & enforcing court orders

GET AN EDUCATION!

Southwestern Community College

John Reider, Kimi Rodriguez-McSwain,
Zeidy Barrera, Maribel Aguirre

- Prepares students to transition to community college upon release
- Recognizes that providing inmates with an education and opportunities for success upon release lowers recidivism

Grossmont College // Susan Schwarz &

Dr. Katrina Vanderwoude

- Has a Pathways to Success Academy, a joint pilot program of the college and the jail
- Provides college credits, tutoring and financial aid information to inmates who succeed in the program
- Gives students academic advising and information

Thank You!

Captain Erika Frierson // Reentry Manager: Christine Taylor Brown // Program Coordinator: Patricia Ceballos // Administrative Lieutenant: Cynthia Montgomery

Reentry Supervisor: Jessica Barawed // LCDRF Administrative Staff // LCDRF Counseling Office

Success Inside & Out Committee Members

San Diego County Superior Court // Hon. Tamila E. Ipema // Hon. Pennie K. McLaughlin // Hon. Terrie Roberts // Hon. Marian Gaston // Hon. Lisa Rodriguez

Nadia Keilani, Esq. // Robert Coleman, CEO Second Chance // Julie Myers, Executive Director, San Diego Superior Court Community Outreach