

Hon. Paul B. Handy is a Principal Administrative Law Judge with the D.C. Office of Administrative Hearings, currently coordinating hearings in unemployment insurance cases. Judge Handy has also served as co-Coordinator of Training, and PALJ for Public Benefits and Licensing and Enforcement cases. Prior to joining OAH in 2004, he was an ALJ for the Maryland OAH, and before that was an Assistant Public Defender and Sole Practitioner. Judge Handy has a BA degree from Rutgers University - Livingston College, with a double major in Labor Studies and Sociology, and a JD from the University of Baltimore School of Law. He is licensed to practice law in Maryland and D.C. Judge Handy has also written 21 plays that have been publicly performed. This is the seventh time that "Full Truth" has been performed, each time by a bar association or civic group.