

Hon. Susan L. Formaker serves as the General Jurisdiction Division Chief Administrative Law Judge for the Office of Administrative Hearings for the State of California. She joined the Office of Administrative Hearings in 2008. Division Chief Formaker began her career in private practice before becoming an in-house litigator in the Bank of America Office of General Counsel, where she held the position of Senior Counsel, and in the Washington Mutual Legal Department, where she was First Vice President and Assistant General Counsel. At Washington Mutual, she was on the Legal Department's Diversity Committee and received a Star Award for her litigation efforts.

Division Chief Formaker joined the faculty of the National Judicial College in 2010. She has served as a moderator and speaker on numerous panels for OAH and bar organizations on subjects ranging from judicial ethics to gender equality in the legal profession. Division Chief Formaker has served for many years on the Board of Governors of California Women Lawyers and on the Board of Governors of the Women Lawyers Association of Los Angeles. She also serves as Co-Chair of the Administrative Judiciary Committee of the National Association of Women Judges. Division Chief Formaker was a member of the Los Angeles County Bar Association's Bioethics Committee. She was named a Woman of Achievement by California Women Lawyers and is a Fellow of the American Bar Foundation.

Division Chief Formaker is a graduate of the UCLA School of Law. As a law student, Division Chief Formaker served as a judicial extern for U.S. District Court Judge Consuelo B. Marshall and as a Commonwealth Fellow on the President's Commission for the Study of Ethical Problems in Medicine and Biomedical and Behavioral Research. She received her bachelor's degree in Psychology, magna cum laude and with departmental honors, from the University of California, Los Angeles, where she was also elected to Phi Beta Kappa and named a Distinguished Scholar.