

Laura Moorner is the Law Librarian for the DC Court of Appeals. She joined the Court in 2019 and prior to that was the Law Librarian for the Public Defender Service for DC for almost fourteen years. Laura received her MLS from the University of Maryland, her JD from Mercer Law School and her Bachelors of Science from Virginia Tech, Magna Cum Laude. Laura is barred in Maryland, the District of Columbia and Georgia. Laura enjoys providing legislative history assistance, and training sessions, to the Court's clerks and especially enjoys studying D.C. history, especially as it relates the Courts and the creation of D.C.'s unique history. She is currently an adjunct professor at the Univ. of Maryland's College of Information teaching courses on legal research for information professionals. Laura maintains an Instagram account re: the library and it can be found @dcalibby.
