MEMBERSHIP CATEGORIES

SITTING JUDGE

Sitting Judge members currently hold judicial positions. They may vote, hold office, and share in all the privileges of membership.

RETIRED JUDGE

Retired judge members include those who have taken senior status. They may vote, hold office, and share in all the privileges of membership.

LIFE MEMBER

Life Members are current or retired judges who make a one time financial contribution, and are not obligated to pay future dues.

ASSOCIATE MEMBER

Associate members are those who hold judicial positions not requiring bar membership (e.g., Municipal Judges in some states). They share in all the privileges of membership, but may not vote or hold office.

AMICUS JUDICII

Amicus Judicii members are friends of NAWJ. This includes attorneys and other individuals who support NAWJ goals. They receive NAWJ mailings and publications, and share in all other privileges of membership, except are ineligible to vote or hold office.

LAW CLERKS and LAW STUDENTS

Law Clerk and Law Student members receive NAWJ mailings and publications, and share in all other privileges of membership, except are ineligible to vote or hold office.
