

Cory M. Amron

Ms. Amron is a retired partner in the firm of Vorys, Sater, Seymour and Pease LLP, where she headed the Intellectual Property group. She is a graduate of Harvard Law School and has actively worked on what is now known as DEI issues as well as education of the public on the law and legal issues throughout her nearly 40-year legal career.

She was the second Chair of the ABA Commission on Women in the Profession, and worked on the issue of sexual harassment in the legal profession before, during and after Anita Hill testified before the Senate at Clarence Thomas' confirmation hearing in 1991. She was a member of the ABA Commission on Domestic Violence, and the ABA President's Advisory Council on Diversity, She was named a Star of the Bar by the Women's Bar Association of DC in 2003 and received the WBA's Women Lawyer of the Year Award in 2004.

Ms. Amron is currently the President of Women Lawyers On Guard a national network of women and men harnessing the power of the law to protect and defend equality, justice and equal opportunity for all.