

Tom Leighton

Tom Leighton is Vice President of Source Acquisition and Judicial Relations for Thomson Reuters Legal and Tax businesses in the U.S., Canada and the United Kingdom. He has had a series of interesting and challenging roles in his thirty-two year career with West Publishing/Thomson Reuters following his service in the United States Navy Judge Advocate Generals Corps and in private law practice. He serves on a number of law-related non-profit organizations including the American Inns of Court Foundation, New York University Law School's Institute of Judicial Administration, the United States Supreme Court Historical Society, the Minnesota Supreme Court Historical Society, the National Association of Women Judges Resource Board and the Books for Africa Jack Mason Law & Democracy Initiative Advisory Board.