

PANELIST

Courtroom Tools for Addressing Human Trafficking, Domestic and Sexual Violence, and Child Exploitation in the time of COVID-19

THE HONORABLE PAMILA J. BROWN is District Administrative Judge for the District Court of Maryland in Howard County, since July 1, 2017 (Associate Judge since May 7, 2002). She was a member of the Mental Health, Alcoholism and Addiction Committee (2002-05) of the Maryland Judicial Conference. She was also a member of the Judicial Education Committee for District Court of Maryland (2002-15). Member, Maryland Correctional Enterprises Management Council, 2008-. Chair, Public Awareness Committee, 2010-14 (member, 2008-14), Maryland Judicial Conference. Member, Court Access and Community Relations Committee, 2015-16, 2018 (chair, community relations subcommittee, 2015-); and District Court Chief Judge's Committee, 2017-, Judicial Council.

She began government service as Director of Inmate Legal Services for the Baltimore City Jail (1979-81), and later as Assistant City Solicitor for Baltimore City (1981-86). She served as a member of a Foster Care Review Board in Baltimore City from 1983 to 87 (chair, 1986-87). Additional roles included: Assistant Attorney General, Office of Attorney General, 1987-92. Member, State Commission on Arthritis and Related Diseases, 1989-92. Deputy Counsel, State Treasurer, 1992-96. Deputy Counsel, State Highway Administration, 1996-98. Member, Library Renovation Committee, Howard County, 1997-98; Maryland Judicial Commission on Pro Bono, 1998-2000. Principal Counsel, Department of General Services, 1998-2002. Member, Revitalization Committee, Howard County, 1998-2002; Board of Social Services, Howard County, 2000.

She is a graduate of Macalester College (B.A., 1976), and the University of Baltimore School of Law (J.D., 1979). She is a member of the American Bar Association; Maryland State Bar Association (President, 2015-16); Howard County Bar Association (President, 1997-98); Monumental City Bar Association; and Women's Bar Association of Maryland (Howard County chapter) among other associations.